President's Message

With the New Year upon us, it is time to reflect upon the year past and the year to come. At the forefront, the well being of Israel is on the minds of everyone, and rightly so. Surrounded on all sides by neighbors intent on its total destruction, we should all think of ways to support the home of the Jewish people. As difficult as times are here in the US and around the world, we do not face the dangers that Israel faced on a daily basis. Consider contacting your Congressmen and urging them to support Israel every way possible. We do not want the turmoil in surrounding countries to detract from the basic fact that lack of support for Israel in these circumstances would be immoral and a gross strategic blunder for our nation and the world.

Closer to home, it is not clear whether the economic crisis will improve or get worse. So more and more, we may be called upon to care and support for our loved ones, neighbors and friends. Let's do our best to represent the best in our Jewish tradition of caring for those less fortunate.

Best wishes to one and all.
