Shalom:

As I'm writing this letter, another winter storm is approaching the east coast. The storm is supposed to drop another 10 inches or more of snow to the Philadelphia area...Oye Vje!!! I think Shomrim should meet in Florida from December to March!!!

“MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND”

President's Day

On February 21, 2011 we will be celebrating the birthday of two presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. I would like to share with you the relationships of these two men to the Jewish citizens of their time.

George Washington

Serious disagreements were developing between the colonies and the British government. The colonists were not allowed to be elected to the British Parliament in London; nevertheless the Parliament demanded the colonists pay taxes. In April of 1775, the thirteen colonies revolted against the British and the American Revolution had begun.

The Jews in America were divided on the views of the revolution. Some were loyal to the crown, even though life in America was better than it had been under the crown. About 100 Jews fought under George Washington. The most famous of them was Hayam Solomon, who was George Washington's financial advisor and assistant. During the cold winter at Valley Forge when the American soldiers were freezing and running out of food, it was Hayam Solomon who marshalled the Jews in America and Europe to provide money. He personally gave Washington $300,000.00, which was an immense fortune in those days, to provide food and clothing to the stranded troops and in so doing, turned the course of history. Without his help, our "army" would have perished before they could have defeated the British. In 1893, a bill was presented before the 52nd Congress ordering a gold medal be struck in recognition of Hayam Solomon's contribution to the United States.

It is hard to tell how many Jews fought in Washington's Army as religion was not listed in the Army records. We do find such names as in the Regimental records as Cohen, Franks, Goldman, Israel, Levy, Meyers and Moses.

There were Jewish Army Doctors. One was Dr. Phillip Moses Russell of Virginia who lived through the winter at Valley Forge with Washington.

The Minis and Sheftall families were among the famous patriots of Georgia. Phillip Minis fought with great bravery in the Revolution. Mordecai Sheftall was called by the British "a very great rebel." his son, who was only eighteen at the time, was the Captain of a ship that brought food to the American prisoners at Charleston.

On August 17, 1790, George Washington sent a letter to Moses Seixes who was the warden of Congregation Kahal Kodesh of Newport, Rhode Island. In it he wrote "May the children of the stock of Abraham, who dwell in this land, continue to merit the and enjoy the good will of the other inhabitants; while every one shall sit under his own vine and fig tree and there shall be none to make him afraid." The letter was signed "G. Washington."

The congregation later changed its name to the Touro Synagogue and each year the congregation reads the letter at a public ceremony.

Abraham Lincoln

When the Civil War began in 1861, there were nearly 7,000 Jewish soldiers in the Union Army and approximately 3,000 in the Confederate Army.

In 1862 President Lincoln made it possible for Rabbis to serve as military chaplains. He did this by signing an Act of Congress which changed the law that had barred all but Christian clergymen from chaplaincy.

On December 17, 1862, General Ulysses S. Grant, who was Military Governor of all captured territory, issued an order which was titled General Order 11. This required the expulsion, without a trial or hearing, of "All Jews as a class within twenty-four hours," from the area that we know today as northern Mississippi, Kentucky, and western Tennessee.

Needless to say, the Jewish communities of this area were extremely angry. A man by the name of Cesar Kaskal, with the help of Congressman Gurley from Ohio, met with the President. It quickly became clear that Lincoln knew nothing of this matter. Kaskal had brought documentation with him. After listening to both men Lincoln asked "and so the children of Israel were driven from the land of Canaan?" Kaskal replied "yes, and that is why we have come into our Father Abraham's Bosom, asking for protection." Lincoln replied "And this protection they shall have at once!" Lincoln then ordered that General Order 11 be immediately revoked.

The rest is history.
