President's Message

Dear Shomrim Sisters and Brothers:

With the approach of Spring and nicer weather, we also approach a time when Shomrim must make important decisions to chart its course and better refine who we want to be and what will best serve our members and the Jewish community. We must continue to rethink what our members want and need, and also the nature and extent to which we should reach out to the Jewish community and the community at large. The best way to determine these things is by reaching out to our members and considering their input and judgment. And the best way to do this is at our meetings and by communicating with each other. Attending meetings and communicating by telephone and e-mail are fine ways to interact and maintain momentum. That said, be sure to join us at our next meeting, share your thoughts and meet your friends. In addition, I also invite you to e-mail me with your thoughts about Shomrim and how it can best serve everyone. With best wishes I remain, Howard Lebofsky.
