President's Message

Dear Shomrim Sisters and Brothers:

The recent death of our esteemed member, Blackie Fineman, got me thinking about all of the really fine people that I know over the years. In fact, I would not have known and learned from so many of these people were it not for Shomrim. Some who come to mind are Sam Glass, one of Shomrim's founding members. Sam loved Shomrim and always had time to offer guidance and share some of the as police officer in the 20's, 30's and 40's. The years that Sam was a police officer seemed like ancient times to me when I first met Sam in the early 70's. Now, mote and mote, I realize that the years that I was in the police department seem like ancient history to our younger members who joined the Philadelphia Police Department after 2000. There were so many other members of Shomrim who mentored me and guided me through some tough decisions, and did so with so much wisdom and common sense that I am still in awe when I think about them and how they contributed to the betterment of so many of our members. These individuals contributed so much to the organization. In this regard, we must always reach out to our fellow members and collectively help one another, which is what makes Shomrim so great.

With best wishes I remain, Howard Lebofsky.
