BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING - 6:30 PM, at the "Y"

GUEST SPEAKER: This month, to close out the season, Howard Rabinovitch will talk to us and give us an update on current events and will entertain questions from the floor. As his information is always interesting and timely, bring your spouse and friends and let's have a great turnout for this last meeting before the summer break. There will also be an election for Treasurer and to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, Mike Gilbert

Shalom: I hope everyone had a great Memorial Day holiday. To our fathers, Happy Father's Day, also have a Happy Flag Day and Welcome to Summer.

During Police Week we attended the Philadelphia Police Memorial and placed our wreath in memory of our fallen brothers and sisters. We also attended the National Shomrim Memorial in Washington, D.C. A nice time was had by all.

On a sad note, our friend, 53 year Shomrim member and Board member, Sam Weinstein passed away. He will be greatly missed.

The banquet will be on June 2. The past years were excellent and we expect that this banquet will also be a great success. Please call and reserve a seat.

Let me take this time to give you some info on the upcoming 2004 National Convention. It will again be held in Florida from Dec. 1 through Dec. 5, 2004. Take time over the summer to make arrangements to join Merrill, Bob, Cantor Edwards, Jo and I at this great event. Last year was a great learning experience. We hope this year will be just as educational. I will be speaking on Identity Theft. Information as to the hotel and cost will be coming out shortly and the information can be found on the National Shomrim web site. There is nothing like being in Florida in December.

Please come to the meetings, express your opinions and get involved!

The next meeting will be June 10, 2004.

Have a great summer and be safe. I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the banquet.

And we will see you again at the first meeting after the summer, Thursday, September 9, 2004.

Mike

Obituary for Detective (Retired) Samuel Weinstein

By Bill Fleisher, Past President

On May 16, 2004, Shomrim of Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley lost a member of remarkable stature. Sam Weinstein, a long time Director of this organization was a friend to many of us. He would probably frown on this Obituary as he was a very private man. However, we cannot let his passing occur without these few remarks about our friend and brother.

Sam was a man of singular qualities, a true “man” in every sense of the word. He was a man among men. To know Sam Weinstein, was to truly love him. That is, to really know Sam. Not the tough former Marine and Philadelphia Police Detective of forty years standing (35 years as a detective - the last 15 years in the Intelligence Division - he would remind us.). But, the private complicated, highly intelligent and sensitive man with an extraordinary memory which never failed to amaze those who knew him. He was also a man with a giant heart.

I was blessed to know the real Sam Weinstein and be his friend. He was a man who lived life on his own terms. Sam asked for no quarter, nor did he give any. He was a man who always had your back. A man who would tell you the truth, even if you did not want to hear it.

He was quick with his fists, but even quicker with a helping hand. Sam was a compassionate human being who did many kindnesses, which, as was his nature, he kept secret. His were true Mitzvot, those good deeds recorded only in heaven.

To understand why Sam was so private, you would have to know what molded his life. Sam was orphaned at a tender age. Sam’s father was killed while Sam was still in his mother’s womb. Tragically, Sam’s mother several years later. Sam was taken into the home of an aunt and uncle - his mother’s brother. This aunt was his beloved Elsie. Elsie was not Jewish. She was Lutheran.

Sam told me that when he was only five years old, and newly situated in his new home, he overheard his uncle say to Elsie, that Sam was hers to raise as she wanted, “what religion are you going to raise him?” Elsie did not hesitate. She answered that Sam would be brought up as a Jew like his mother. And, that is exactly what she did. Elsie made sure that Sam had an intense Jewish education. This wonderful no nonsense lady became Sam’s “mother.” And, he loved her very much. Sam often told me great “Elsie stories.”

Sam grew up in South Philly. He counted among his acquaintances, cops, mobsters, pols, and even a “Duke,” John Wayne that is. Sam was on Wayne’s protection detail when he visited Philadelphia. Sam had stories about them all. I will miss those hours Sam and I spent together solving the world’s problems and, sometimes creating a few.

Sam was devoted to his wife Sally, his daughters, Anita and Diane, his granddaughter Jennifer and the pride of his life his great-grandson Jordan. And, Sam never forgot his son David whose untimely death left a wound in his heart that never healed.

A member of the “Greatest Generation,” Sam was a WWII combat veteran having honorably served both in the US Navy Mine Division and the US Marine Corps. Sam was a life member of VFW Rising Sun Post; Shomrim Society (54 years); US Navy Mine Division Association; Third Marine Division Society and the FOP. Sam was also going to be made a life member of the American Legion the week after died. Sam was very proud of this upcoming honor and told me about it just a week before he died, noting all the organizations of which he was a life member.

Sam voluntarily served with honor seven times with the Israeli Defense Force, where he had assignments with the Tank Division; Intelligence Division; Air Division; and Weapons Command. He even made parachute jumps with the IDF, while in his seventies.

Above all this, Sam Weinstein was a devoted son, husband, father and friend. For me personally, Sam was a friend, brother and father confessor and I am going to miss him very much.

Monday, May 17, 2004, Sam was laid to rest next to his beloved son, David, at King David Memorial Park, Bensalem, PA. Escorted there by the Philadelphia Police Department and serenaded by a lone Piper. Surrounded by family and friends, the service ended with the playing of Taps. It was a fitting farewell for a hero like Sam. Rest in Peace my friend. You are in a far better place.

The Fifth Commandment

By Cantor Alan Edwards

On June 20th, we will be celebrating Father's Day. This day was an idea proposed by Mrs. John B. Dodd who resided in the state of Washington in 1909. She wanted a special day set aside to honor her father, William Smart, a Civil War veteran who was widowed when his wife died in childbirth with their 6th child. Mr. Smart was left to raise the newborn and five children by himself on a rural farm in eastern Washington state.

The first Father's Day was observed on June 19, 1910, in Spokane, Washington. Various towns and cities across America were beginning to celebrate a "Father's Day". In 1924, President Calvin Coolidge supported a national Father's Day. Finally, in 1966, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a presidential proclamation declaring the 3rd Sunday of June as Father's Day.

The classical Jewish texts have a lot to say about honoring a father and mother. The Mitzvah of "kibbud av Va-aim" is the Fifth Commandment standing halfway between the first four dealing with the Jewish relationship with G-d and the last five - establishing standards of social morality. That placement speaks of the insight that parents represent a bridge between G-d and the world, between our own personal drama of Creation and our entry in the world of human interaction and expectation.

The Talmud teaches us that three partners are involved in the birth of every person - - G-d, mother and father. One of the roots then, of our obligation to honor our parents, is their role as a pre-eminent source of life. Parents represent G-d, not only for their role in our inception and birth, but also on a psychological level. The Talmud defines the word 'honor' as feeding and clothing one's parents. This does not seem that a person is being honored by making sure they are fed and clothed. These are acts of charity usually reserved for homeless or poor people. How can this be called honor? The Hebrew word in the Torah regarding parents "kavod" does not really mean honor. In the Talmud, the same word is used to say that human dignity is extremely important. Therefore, the true meaning of the word "kavod" is dignity.

The mitzvah is to dignify one's mother and father, to keep their dignity. When I visit nursing homes and see the residents clothed and fed, the word "kavod" comes to mind, in that the children are performing the mitzvah in dignifying their parents.

In the words of the Talmud: "The love of parents goes to their children, but the love of these children goes to their children."
