MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, Larry Nodiff

Greetings:

Wishing everyone a Happy Father's Day, a Happy Flag Day, a Happy 4th of July and welcome to summer. Summer time already? Can you believe it? This year went by so fast. It also means we have next year to look forward to.

Don't forget, I want to see everyone June 10th at Har Zion, to celebrate Shomrim of Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley's 72nd Annual Banquet.

If you weren't at the last meeting, you missed a very interesting and informative guest speaker. He was Gregory A. Branch, Special Agent, FBI, who spoke about recruiting Agents and civilian personnel. The F.B.I. is particularly looking to hire those who are bilingual, especially in Hebrew, Arabic or Russian.

Just a reminder that the conference on AGRO-TERRORISM will take place in Miami, FL. 11/9/09 through 11/11/09. Howard Rabinovitch is busy getting the program and the lecturers together. This course is a DOJ Certified course for which you will get credit for attending. All the pertinent information will be posted on the web site.

I want to again thank Mitch Spritzler and Lee Newman for their hard work in putting together this year's banquet and ad book. Also much thanks to our secretary, Judi Buch, for her hard work in getting Shomrim's affairs in order. I also want to thank my Board of Directors and Trustees for their continuing good work in keeping the organization running. With the close of our 72nd year, I want to thank all of our members for their support of Shomrim and hope to see everyone in the fall. Also a thank you to Howard Rabinovitch for getting the guest speakers for our meetings and to Alan Fried for his hard work in setting up and feeding everyone at the meetings.

A reminder to our Sergeant test applicants that the test is scheduled for September 19, 2009 and I am available for study help.

We are also looking into the idea of group sports for our members. Anyone interested, contact one of the officers.

On August 20, 2009, the Phillies will celebrate Jewish Heritage Night. We would like to know if any of our members would be interested in attending. Maybe we can get SHOMRIM on the 'jumbotron'!

So now, I want to wish everyone a happy and safe summer, and since the June meeting has been cancelled, I hope to see everyone on September 10, 2009, for the first meeting of our 73rd year. We shall be updating the web site through the summer so you will know what is happening.

See you in September.

Shalom, Larry

On the Town

Member's Corner - From Merrill Kelem -

Was there a Jewish President?

A study by Rabbi Jeff Kahn, Temple Har Shalom, Warren, N.J.

On February 12, 1809, 200 years ago, a young, poor, illiterate woman from Virginia, Nancy Hanks Lincoln, gave birth to a son, in a log cabin, built along the banks of the south fork of Nolin Creek, near what is now Hodgenville, Kentucky.

That baby, whom she named Abraham, grew to become one of our greatest, and most tragic, national leaders.

Lincoln was a man of great spiritual conviction. Yet, and I find this fact fascinatingly instructive, Abraham Lincoln was the only American President not to have declared himself a member of any particular religious faith.

This fact has given rise to a great deal of interesting speculation. In fact, there are those who believe 'Honest Abe' was Jewish.

After all, his name was Abraham, his great-grandfather was named Mordechai. He was the only President not to have a formal religious affiliation. He was neither raised in a church nor did he ever belong to a church.

And there's more. The town of Lincoln, in Eastern England, whence his ancestors came, has an interesting Jewish history.

A Jewish community was established there in 1159. During Crusader riots, the Sheriff of Lincoln saved the Jews by giving them official protection. St. Hugh, the great Bishop of Lincoln, taught love of Jews to his parishioners. His death was marked by an official period of mourning among Lincoln's Jews. Rabbi Joseph of Lincoln, was a scholar mentioned in the Talmud; Aaron of Lincoln was a financier whose operations extended all over the country.

In 1255, Lincoln's Jews were accused of ritual murder. Ninety-one of Lincoln's Jews were sent to London for trial and eighteen were executed. Notwithstanding, the Lincoln Jewish community flourished until 1290, when they were forcibly expelled by edict.

Most Jewish historians assume that all of the Jews of Lincoln left in 1290. But could it be possible that some remained, practicing their Judaism in secret... passing the family secret from generation to generation? The more we learn of the secret life of Spanish Jewry following the Expulsion of 1492, the more we must at least consider the possibility of the same thing occurring elsewhere.

When Abraham Lincoln was assassinated, whole Jewish communities sat Shiva. Rabbi's all over the country eulogized the fallen president. Rabbi Isaac Mayer Wise, the man who created Reform Judaism in this country, began his eulogy with the words "Brethren, the lamented Abraham Lincoln believed himself to be bone from our bone and flesh from our flesh. He supposed himself to be a descendant of Hebrew parentage. He said so in my presence."

Lincoln was often questioned about his religious beliefs. Time and again, he told of a special passage from scripture that summed up his theology. It was the twentieth chapter of the Book of Exodus that he recommended every American study, learn and follow. In English, it is usually referred to as the Ten Commandments.....

A research paper submitted by Professor Elizabeth Hirschman, Rutgers University, shows that she studied this topic extensively and after a complete and absolute study, checking out his ancestry and going back to his hometown where she did years of research on this topic, found beyond any reasonable doubt, that Abraham Lincoln was Jewish.
