BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING - 6:30 PM, at the "Y"

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT, Judi Buch

We will be having a meeting this June 14th at the JCC, since we will not be having our banquet in June this year. Dr. Scott Goldstein, a "Swat Doc" will be presenting part 2 about tactical medicine and teaching us how to save ourselves and our colleagues in a critical situation. We were fascinated by the information he shared with us at the last meeting and you shouldn't miss Part 2! Thanks to member Doug Green for suggesting this speaker and to Howard Rabinovitch for putting it all together.

Our own Cantor Alan Edwards gave the invocation at the recent Living Flame Memorial Service 2012. Scott Pollack said it was wonderful. Some of it is on Youtube, for your viewing pleasure. Scott and Alan Kurtz attended and presented, on behalf of Shomrim, a beautiful Jewish Star shaped wreath with "SHOMRIM" across it. Thank you Alan, for your generous donation towards the cost of the wreath.

Our banquet plans are moving along for October 24, 2012, at Har Zion. We need each of us to sell an advertisement for the ad book and perhaps think about putting one in, as well. This banquet will be celebrating our 75th anniversary!! That deserves a lot of special effort by each and every one of us. This event will be "one for the ages"! The cost for tickets and the ad book will be the same as last year. There will be some changes in the menu, due to rising costs. Thanks to Merrill Kelem and Mike Gilbert for their efforts!

In the spirit of this special anniversary, let's make an effort to further the goals and mission of Shomrim! Expanding membership is one way to do that. Another is to pay our dues and pay for our advertisements in the Herald. We also welcome donations from our lifetime members. It's not even halfway through 2012; but we need your money now! FYI - one of our BEST FUNDRAISERS is THE AD BOOK FOR THE BANQUET!

Our financial condition is worsening rather quickly. We need to re-think continuing to purchase tickets and ads for other organization's banquets and other events in the same numbers as in years past. More than half the time, not all of these tickets are actually used by Shomrim. I would like to hear some ideas from you about ways to improve our financial condition. Let's share our ideas at the next meeting.

Please read the rest of the Herald for the name of a prospective member and information about the complimentary 2012 membership for Doctor Goldstein, our May speaker. He is Jewish, an EM Doctor and is interested in recruiting others. Let's show enthusiasm by attending the next meeting!

I must say that the last meeting was very congenial. I would like to take this opportunity to state that it's up to each of us to make Shomrim a cohesive and meaningful organization. One way is to be respectful to each other and to the speakers. Let's try to mute our cell phones and PDA's and give our attention to each other and the speakers. It's only for about 1 ½ hours out of each month for general members and 2 ½ hours for Board members. That's not a lot to ask. ☺

Our next meeting is Thursday, June 14th. I am looking forward to seeing you there.

Judi

on the town

Get well soon: Merrill Kelem made a recent trip to a hospital in Washington, D.C. for another medical procedure. Hope all is well.

Also - Howard Rabinovitch hospitalized recently. Not a good way to start your retirement. Get well soon.

GUEST SPEAKER: We will have Doctor Scott Goldstein, our May speaker, returning for Part 2 of his presentation. He is a "Swat Doc", an EM Doctor, telling us about tactical medicine and how to save ourselves and others in a critical situation. Thanks to members Doug Green and Howard Rabinovitch for arranging for this speaker. Those attending the last meeting were fascinated by the information he shared and we expect much more at this upcoming meetng. So come to the meeting, learn from and interact with our guest speaker and put out your ideas on how to improve Shomrim. Get involved, take an active part in YOUR organization.
