President's Message

WELCOME TO THE NEW HERALD! This is an abridged edition; most of you will be receiving it electronically and a few by snail mail. In order to reduce costs, we'd love to be entirely online. If you have access to email or the Internet, you can view the Herald and we can save. This edition will go out to everyone; however, we will be trimming our distribution list soon to paid members only and interested organizations. Of course, anyone will be able to access the Herald through Shomrim's website- www.shomripadv.org

We are forever grateful to Bernie Margulis for his tireless efforts as the Herald's Editor. We dedicate this year's Heralds to Bernie Margulis. The electronic Herald is currently edited and distributed by Lee Newman. Thanks, Lee. We'd also love for someone to redesign our web site! With the high cost of mailing, smart phones and computers everywhere, it is necessary to go in this direction.

Our banquet plans continue to move forward for October 24, 2012, at Har Zion. PLEASE-Shomrim needs each of us to sell advertisements for the ad book. Perhaps you will consider putting one in, as well. There's a blank ad form attached that you can print out, as well as ticket information. It's our 75th anniversary!! Much gratitude to Merrill Kelem and Mike Gilbert for their continued efforts-they have been working hard on the banquet. Remember that the Shomrim Yearbook is where we make our real profit, not from the dinner itself.

This year we will be having a national/local radio personality as our Humanitarian of the Year. Sid Mark hosts the "Sounds of Sinatra" and has brought joy and pleasure to millions of listeners for decades! Many, many individuals have been beneficiaries of the solid entertainment that Sid Mark has shared over the years. Of course, we will be honoring all Shomrim members as Persons of the Year!

We have another prospective member that we will vote on in September-Stacy Irving. Details located in the boxed notice, so we can vote on her acceptance.

Members-have you sent in your DUES yet? Although Life Members do not need to send in general membership dues, we would greatly appreciate a contribution of $10 or more. Remember, please sell ads and buy tickets to our banquet, too!! Dues help, but they're not enough to sustain the organization.

National Shomrim President Allison Schloss of the Chicago PD is hoping to attend our banquet this year. It is such a special year-our 75th anniversary. Let's have a great turn out by our members, too.

Howard Rabinovitch has plans for amazing speakers this year, beginning with the meeting on September 13th. More details to follow in the next Herald. See you on the 13th of September at the JCC!
