President's Message

After all of our angst at the meeting in October...OUR BANQUET WAS A RESOUNDING SUCCESS!!! Thanks to everyone who helped-Mike Gilbert for getting the banquet started, Merrill Kelem for moving the banquet plans forward and Lee Newman for keeping a record of all paid tickets/ads and completely handling the program/ad book. We were worried about losing money and it appears that we didn't. Find out the bottom line at our meeting on November 8th.

Cantor Alan Edwards and Scott Pollack had a hand in making the banquet profitable, by getting the VIP Flyers tickets donated and putting together a martini basket. Everything generated income for the organization. A special "THANK YOU" to Len Lebowitz who sold 50-50 tickets all night. I'm not sure that Len even ate his dinner! Veronica Newman, Sabrina Pollack and Andrea Rosengarten helped at the banquet, too. You were all terrific and the banquet was enjoyed by all!

We had about 17 Philadelphia Shomrim members in attendance. I must say that we could've done better. There was a great turnout by our brothers and sisters from New York. They got the Hora started and we all had fun. It was wonderful having Allison Schloss, National Shomrim President, with us, as well as Marc Buslik, Illinois Chapter Shomrim president.

There was an informal National meeting at the banquet, near the end of the cocktail hour and before dinner. Everyone is interested in helping our chapter in any way they can. Please be advised that there is a National Shomrim Society Caribbean cruise coming up in January; look on <http://www.nationalshomrim.org/events.php> for details. Hurry! It's not too late.

A couple of folks from other organizations made some worthwhile suggestions for growing our group. We will talk more about these during the meeting on November 8th and come up with a game plan to follow some of the suggestions. It's important right now to focus on increasing our membership and encourage greater participation. The consensus from our last meeting was that most active members want to see our chapter endure.

The December meeting will have a wonderful speaker and we'll have a Hanukkah celebration. More about that in next month's Herald. In the meantime, come to the meeting on November 8th; you'll get re-energized about Shomrim of Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley, enjoy some good food and friends!

Please, be safe out there.

Judi
